CARLISLE AND JUDSON.

Two Grand And Illustrious Characters. Have Given Their All To Education.

The Courier passes its salutations this week to the two noble Christian teachers, James H. Carlisle, LL. D., of Wofford College and Charles H. Judson, LL. D., of Furman University. It is probable that the Baptist state convention at Spartanburg will have the rare privilege of seeing these distinguished gentlemen on the floor of the convention, and it will be the pleasure of that body to recognize these esteemed brethren and to hear from them at some hour convenient to them. If in the providence of God they are permitted to be present, we trust that the convention will honor itself by honoring these servants of God.

For more than half of a century Drs. Judson and Carlisle have given themselves to the important work of teaching and training the young men of the state. With singular fidelity, unwavering zeal and whole heartedness they have devoted their lives to this work. They magnified their office. They have been content to remain with the institutions to which they were called in early life. They have not been place hunters. Other institutions, coveting earnestly the best gifts, gladly would have enrolled their names on their faculties, but they stood by Furman and Wofford through all the vicissitudes, and have quietly and devotedly met their classes, doing their duty in the fear of God.

Higher salaries they might have drawn, and more prominent positions they might have filled, but these considerations failed to move them. In a peculiar way they seemed knit to the people of South Carolina and devoted to the great religious bodies of which they are such conspicuous and highly esteemed members. That these men found their places, and so faithfully filled them through all these years, is indeed an inspiration to all who have known them and to the thousands of young men who came in touch with them.

How many thousands of young men have been taught by these teachers? Who can tell? In every county of the state and in many of the states of the Union are to be found the men who sat in the class rooms of Drs. Carlisle and Judson. Of all, without exception, perhaps, it may be said they had the profoundest respect for these teachers, even admiration and genuine affection. We venture that no young man who ever went to Wofford or Furman would have willingly gone into the presence of these teachers with the smell of liquor on his breath, and not one would have spoken a disrespectful word in their presence, and not one would have come upon him at a gaming table. Few teachers anywhere ever had the respect of their pupils so continuously and universally as did Drs. Judson and Carlisle.

In a remarkable degree these faithful teachers have won the admiration, confidence and affection of the people of the state. Very worthily and properly they are considered among the foremost citizens, and their long service has brought the whole people under obligations which they have not been slow to recognize. The time has not yet come when the people of South Carolina have ceased to love and honor the best men among them, or to revere the memory of the great and good men who have passed away, as was evidenced by the throngs that filled Columbia last week to do honor to the memory of General Wade Hampton.

In behalf of the readers of the Courier, in behalf of the Baptists and Methodists and all the people of the state, the Courier brings this week affectionate greetings to Dr. Charles H. Judson and Dr. James H. Carlisle, the beloved teachers.—Baptist Courier.

A cold is much more easily cured when the bowels are open. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar opens the bowels and drives the cold out of the system in young or old. Sold by all druggists.

"Has your son arrived at years of discretion?" "Oh, yes. He's about to be married." "How you contradict yourself."—Cleveland Leader.

Poverty of a Millionaire.

Most persons, in the opinion of the Rochester Post-Express, would be willing to change unhappiness for an income of $2,284,000, but one man, we are told finds it impossible to pay his bills on this amount. King Edward VII, who receives from the State this stipend, has trouble to "make both ends meet." The Post-Express tells us of this sad case:

Out of this amount he has to maintain a number of castles and royal residences, support a small army of retainers and hunkies, and pension old and faithful servants. Consequently, when the year's bills are paid, his Majesty has no money to put in the bank against a rainy day. Recently the King petitioned to have his salary raised to $3,000,000 a year but owing to the already heavy taxation the Government refused the request. Compared with the other rulers Edward VII, is poorly paid. The Czar of Russia has a total income of 20,000,000 a year. The Sultan of Turkey manages to get along on $10,000,000. Emperor William supports the royal family on an income of about $4,000,000. The King of Italy exists comfortably on an income of $2,859,500, while the Emperor of Austria-Hungary pegs along on $3,700,000. Other sums paid to European sovereigns are: Bavaria, $1,242,726; Belgium, $665,000; Denmark, $240,000, and $28,000 to the heir apparent; France, $288,000; Greece, $260,000; Netherlands, $246,000; Portugal, $567,000; Rumania, $201,482; Saxony, $628,460; Spain, $1,430,000; and Wirttemberg $403,438. Compared with these sums the yearly salary of the President of the United States is very modest indeed. Furthermore, the President earns his salary, which can not be said of many of the rulers mentioned in the list.

King of All Cough Medicines.

Mr. E. G. Case, a mail carrier of Canton Center, Conn., who has been in the U. S. Service for about sixteen years, says: "We have tried many cough medicines for croup, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is king of all and one to be relied upon every time. We also find it the best remedy for coughs and colds, giving certain results and leaving no bad after effects." For sale by Obea Drug Co. and all medicine dealers.

To the Demitition Barkers.

Col. Chinn (of Kentucky)—The newspaper business must be going to the devil nowadays. Newspaper Publisher—How so? Col. Chinn—Why, there were 13 reporters up at the legislature yesterday and not one of them would take a drink.—Somerville Journal.

A man with a sprained ankle will use a crutch, rest the ankle and let it get well. A man or woman with an overworked stomach can't use a crutch, but the stomach must have rest just the same. It can be rested too without starvation. Kodol will do it. Kodol performs the digestive work of the tired stomach and corrects the digestive apparatus. Kodol fully conforms to the provisions of the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Recommended and sold by all druggists.

The Wrong Place.

"What's the matter, my little man?" asked the kindly old gentleman. "You seem to be in great pain." "G'on! Yer mixed," groaned the little boy. "I ain't in no great pains but dey's a great pain in me, all right."—Philadelphia Press.

Open the bowels and get the cold out of your system. Kennedy's Laxative (containing) Honey and Tar opens the bowels and at the same time allays the inflammation of the mucous membranes. Drives out the cold and stops the cough. Absolutely free from any opiates. Conforms to the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Pleasant to take. Sold by all druggists.

Poor Value.

Mr. Widwer (introducing the second Mrs. W.)—Come, children, and kiss your new mamma. Elsie—My gracious! if you took her for 'new' they stuck you, pa—Philadelphia Press.

For chapped and cracked hands nothing is quite as good as an application of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Put it on before going to bed, use an old pair of gloves and see what a difference the morning will bring. Sold by all druggists.

The Boy.

He eats and eats
But is not through
Until he can
No longer chew.

We care not how you suffered, nor what failed to cure you, Hillier's Rocky Mountain Tea makes the palest, weakest specimen of man or womanhood strong and healthy. 35 cents. Jno. H. McMaster & Co.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO HOLDERS OF R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO COMPANY'S TAGS, AS SPECIFIED IN AND FACSIMILES OF WHICH ARE SHOWN ON THEIR 1906 CATALOGUE OF PRESENTS.

This space was bought to remind holders of our tags, who may have overlooked the fact that our offer of presents for the return and delivery to us of tags, as made and advertised in our 1906 Catalogue and Circular of Presents, expires by the terms of the offer itself on January 1st, 1907.

We would not consider giving presents to one without giving presents to all, for tags that reach us after our offer has expired, and for this reason we will not consider any cause whatever for delay in delivery of tags, and we will positively refuse to give presents for any tags that reach Winston-Salem, N. C., after Tuesday, January 1st, 1907, which is the full extent of time as heretofore stipulated in our offer.

No employee has authority to change or modify this or any notice or offer made by us.
